

The IGNITED-Team Leader Certification

Master the art of creating and leading teams ignited to peak performance.

Creating and leading teams ignited to peak performance is the top skill in demand from business executives today.

The world undergoes a period of rapid, relentless change. Technology, disruption, and innovation are the powerful forces driving the new business context. Thriving on this fluidity needs reinventing.

The new organization is a network of internal and external talent, structured into highly empowered teams, cross-cultural and cross-functional. They need a new breed of globally-minded leaders to lead them.

No wonder creating and leading teams ignited to peak performance is the top skill in demand from business executives today.

To help organizations gain compatibility in the new ecosystem, a group of behavioural scientists and industry experts at the Behavioural Skills Company,

Waterloo ON Canada, sought to develop the next-generation team and leadership development system.

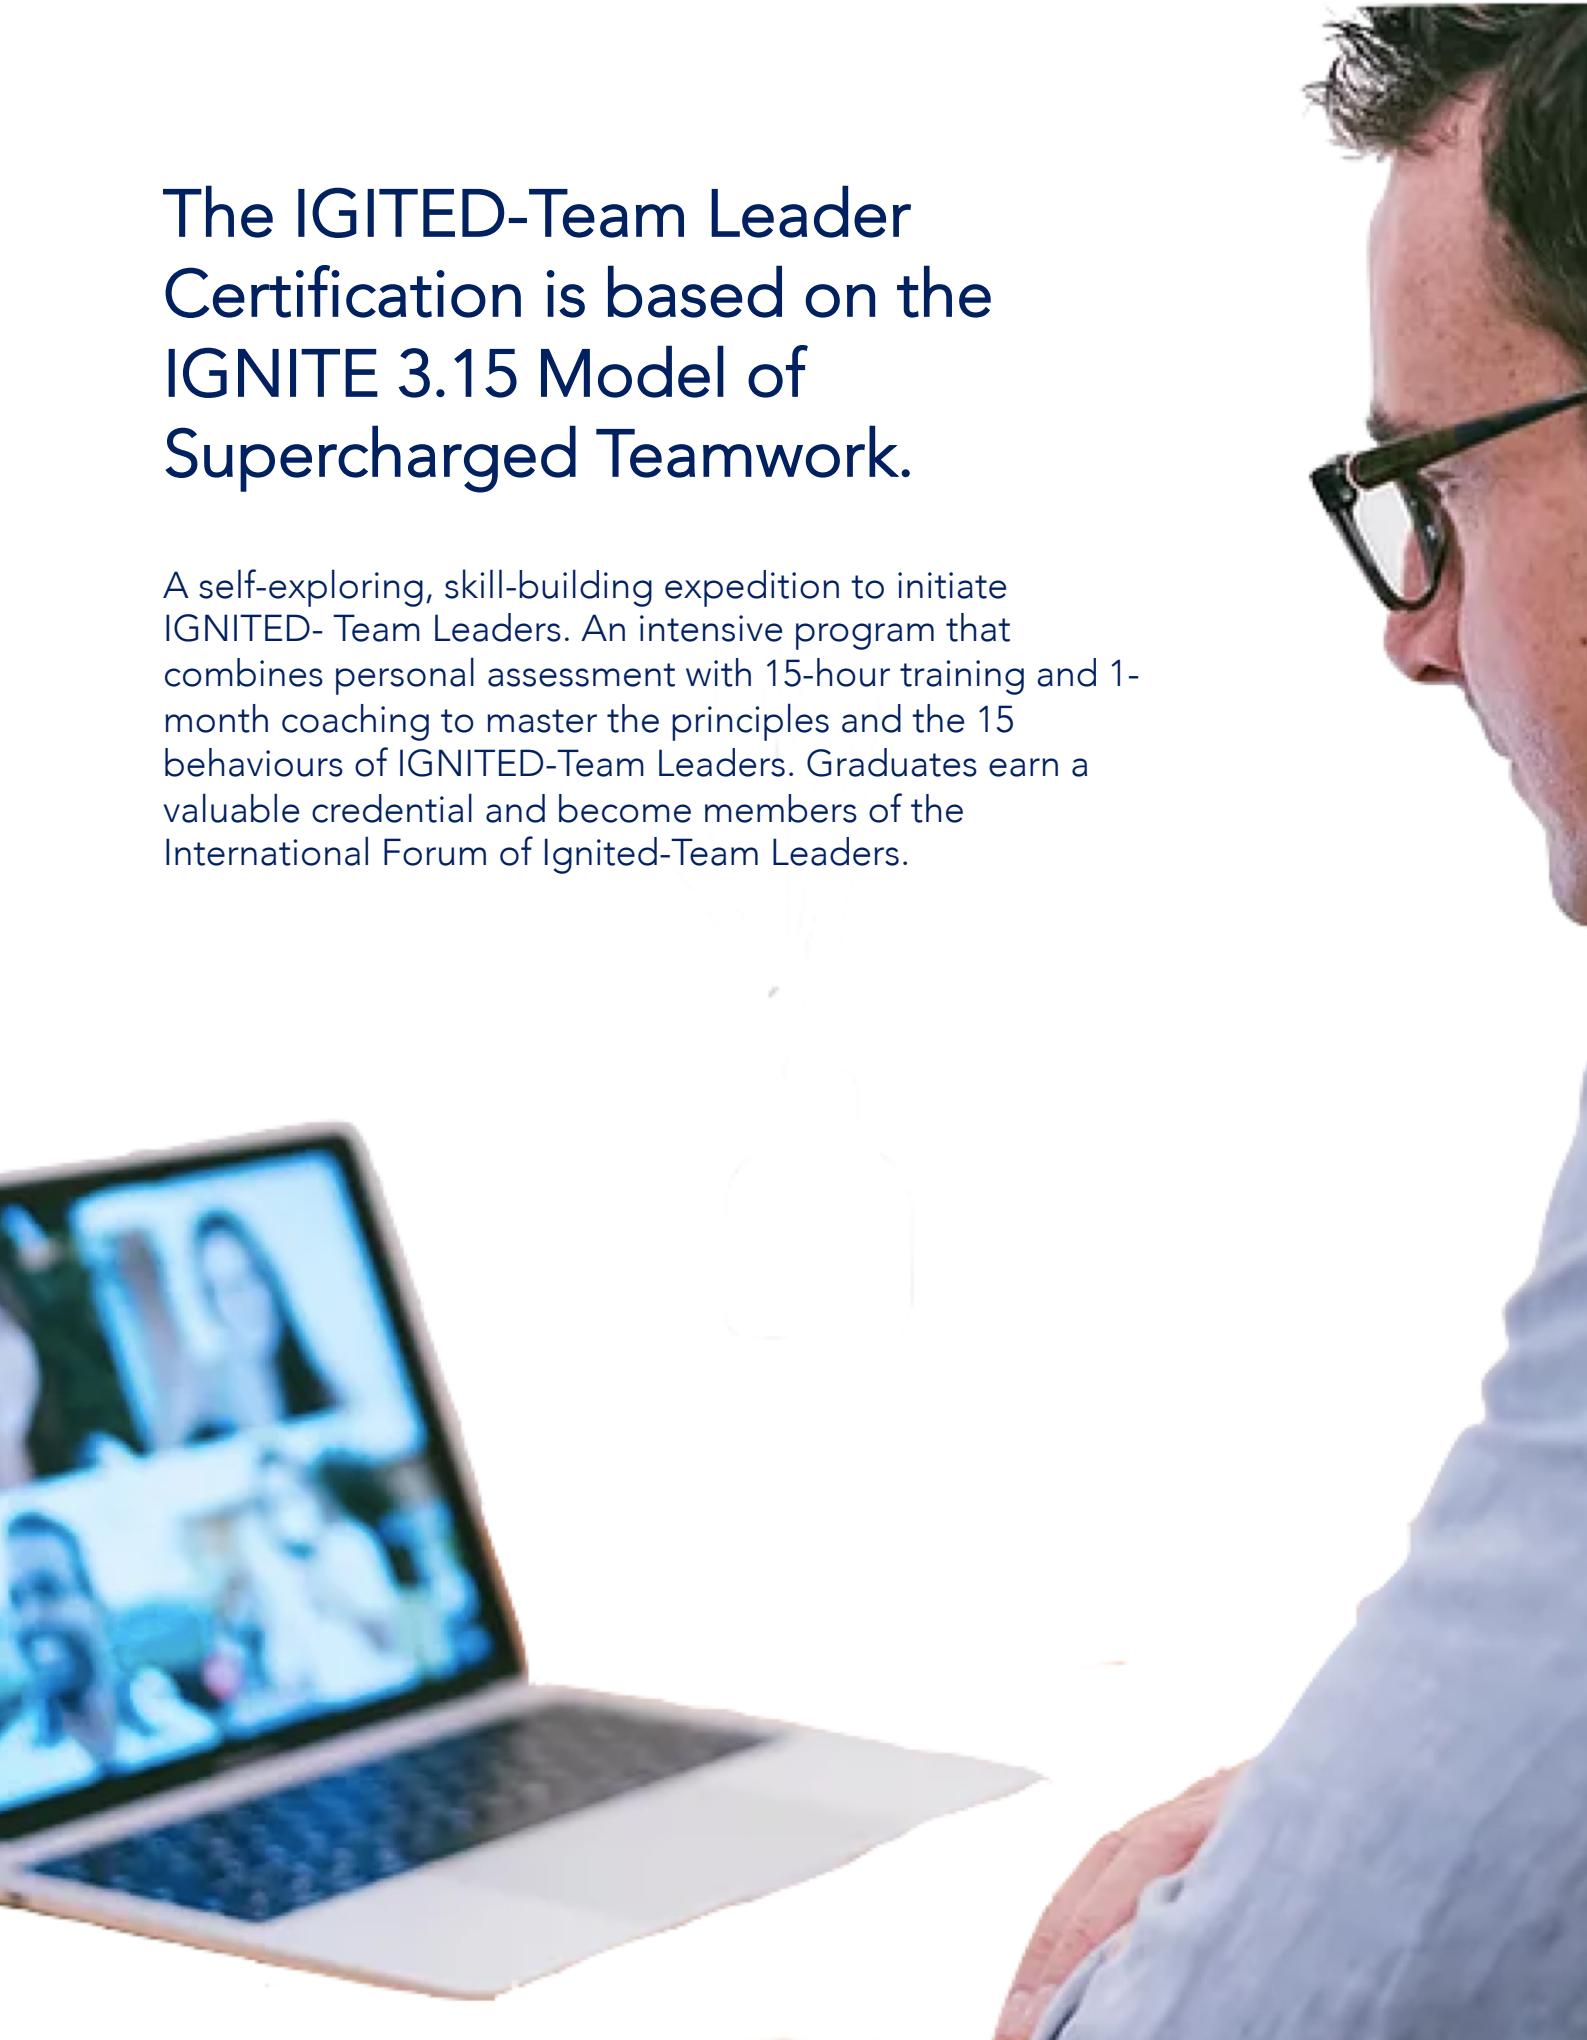

In 2016, they developed the IGNITE 3.15 Model of Supercharged Teamwork as the fastest, reliable, and comprehensive system to transform organizations into networks of supercharged teams.

Fashioning a holistic solution, they put together the three IGNITE Certifications focusing on teams, team leaders, and internal facilitators.

The IGNITED- Leader Certification combines robust training and coaching experience to equip team leaders with 15 behavioural skills to maximize the three drivers of supercharged teamwork: psychological safety, cognitive diversity, and self-accountability.

The IGITED-Team Leader Certification is based on the IGNITE 3.15 Model of Supercharged Teamwork.

A self-exploring, skill-building expedition to initiate IGNITED- Team Leaders. An intensive program that combines personal assessment with 15-hour training and 1-month coaching to master the principles and the 15 behaviours of IGNITED-Team Leaders. Graduates earn a valuable credential and become members of the International Forum of Ignited-Team Leaders.
